

Extension of duration until completing your course of study for Reservation Program for Honors Scholarship for Privately Financed International Students

Japan Student Organization (hereafter “JASSO”) offers Extension of duration until completing your course of study for Reservation Program for Honors Scholarship for Privately Financed International Students as follows.

1. Eligibility / Condition for candidates

- (1) Overseas examinees whose score is in the top rank for each subject test combination for each country and region where the EJU exam administered will be selected for Extension of duration until completing your course of study for Reservation Program for Honors Scholarship for Privately Financed International Students. The student must enroll in advanced courses at a university undergraduate school, junior college, or special training college (hereafter, collectively referred to as “university, etc.”) in Japan. The student must be decided as recipients for the Reservation Program for the Honors Scholarship for Privately Financed International Students after entering university, etc.
- (2) Applicants with excellent result by EJU Overseas Exam can be selected for Extension of duration until completing your course of study for Reservation Program for Honors Scholarship for Privately Financed International Students when the balance of the budget could spare the Reservation Program.

2. Eligibility / Conditions for applying

- (1) Your previous year’s evaluation coefficient of the grade must be over 2.1 when you are promoted to the second year, over 2.2 when you are promoted to the third year, and over 2.3 when you are promoted to the fourth year. If you are in the six year courses -department of medical science, dentistry, pharmaceuticals and veterinary science-, your previous year’s evaluation coefficient of the grade must be over 2.3 when you are promoted to the fifth year and over 2.3 when you are promoted to the sixth year. If your grade cannot be applied for evaluation coefficient of the grade, your grade must be excellent.
- (2) You must meet all qualifications for receiving the Honors Scholarship outlined by JASSO and do not conflict with the conditions of termination of disbursement under the reservation program.

3. Monthly stipend

The monthly stipend will be announced each fiscal year.