(Form2-2 No.36 to 38/Form2-3/Form3)

5) The research guidance of the former international student and the allotment of time to other activities must be appropriate.

(Form2-2/Form2-3/Form3)

6) Because of aims of contributing to promotions for studying abroad to our country, giving priority to plans that content to invite new international students into our country by the dispatch is included.

(Form2-2 No.46/Form2-3/Form3)

7) In concerning privately financed former international students, priority shall be given to prior recipients of Monbukagakusho(MEXT) Honors Scholarship for Privately-Financed International Students.

(Form2-1 No.21/Form3)

8) There should be diverse research topics, recipient countries and the universities which send research advisors.

(2) Notification

The president of the university will be notified of the result of selection in writing by JASSO.

Notification schedule: Early April, 2023 (planned)

The former international student will be notified of the result by the Japanese university for which the application was submitted. No individual inquiries about the selection result will be accepted.

[Note regarding selection]

Application forms with errors will not be received by the selection committee.

12. Cancellation of Acceptance

- (1) When falsehoods have been included in the application.
- (2) When there has been a violation of Section 13. "Obligation of research advisor and former international student".

13. Obligation of research advisor and former international student

- (1) The research advisor, with help from his/her university's administration director, makes necessary preparations for the follow-up research guidance.
- (2) Within one month after the completion of research advisory work, the research advisor and the former international student each submit a research report and a project survey using the required form.
- (3) When giving a lecture in this program, the research advisor needs to mention that it is being given as part of the JASSO operations.

(4) During the advisory work, the research advisor devotes himself/herself to this project and not engage in other activities regardless of remuneration.

14. Break of the supply and refund

The president of JASSO can break off the supply of expense or make the research advisor refund all or a part of it as needed when an inappropriate situation is recognized from the research advisor in carrying out the Follow-up Research Guidance program.

15. Retention of original documents

Host university shall retain original documents regarding application, provision, supply and report in this fellowship program. The retention period shall be five years from April 1st of the year in which the provision and supply is received.

16. Handling of individual information

Individual information contained in the application form will be kept confidential in accordance with the law on the protection of individual information possessed by independent administrative corporations and others and JASSO's rules on the protection of individual information. It will be used for the execution of this work (including the supply of individual information so that an external private firm can electronically process and control data). When the application is selected, the names of researcher, research topic, and institute that engages in research advisory work shall be disclosed. The name, job, and report of the former international student shall also be released.
