

The Shapes of Coparenting in Finland, Portugal, and Japan: Cross-national Comparisons of the Couples Who Had Their First Child

Date September 20, 2024 | 10:30 – 15:35 (Registration opens at 10:00)

Reception 15:35-17:00

Location Tokyo International Exchange Center
(2-2-1 Aomi, Koto City, Tokyo)

Join us in person or online!

Language English / Japanese (simultaneous interpretation)

Registration
Register by Sep 9

Admission Free

Everyone is welcome!

Timetable

10:30-10:50	Introduction
10:50-11:20	Keynote Lecture 1: Angela Abela (University of Malta, Malta) Coparenting in Europe
11:20-11:50	Keynote Lecture 2: Anna Rönkä (University of Jyväskylä, Finland) Construction of Coparenting during the Transition to Parenthood: A Cross-cultural Perspective
11:50-13:00	Lunch Break
13:00-13:20	From Finland: Kaisa Malinen (JAMK University of Applied Sciences) Daily Coparenting Dynamics among Finnish Parents
13:20-13:40	From Portugal: Marisa Matias (University of Porto) First-time Fathers Navigating Care and Paid Work
13:40-14:00	From Japan: Chino Yabunaga (Toyo University) Coparenting Practices and Changes in Perceptions of Partners' Parenting
14:15-15:30	Discussion Discussants Moderator Daisuke Ito (Tokyo Metropolitan University) Yasuka Nakamura (Yamagata Prefectural University of Health Sciences) Junko Nishimura (Ochanomizu University) Mariko Tatsumi (Osaka Metropolitan University)
15:30-15:35	Closing Remarks
15:35-17:00	Reception

"Coparenting refers to the ways that parents work together in their roles as parents" (Feinberg, 2002)

※The titles of the talks are subject to change.

Hosted by The Coparenting Consortium
(International Center, Tokyo Metropolitan University / Center for Sustainable Development Studies, Toyo University)
This is subsidized by the Nakajima Foundation and supported by JASSO.

Sponsored by Ministry of Education,
Culture, Sports, Science and Technology,
Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan, and Tokyo Academic Park

Contact: dito@tmu.ac.jp