

Process from Reservation to Acceptance: Reservation Program for Monbukagakusho Honors Scholarship

【Caution!】 Applicants who have been selected for the reservation program also need to be officially recommended to JASSO by the host institution after enrollment.

You must meet all requirements of the Honors Scholarship for receiving the scholarship.

You should report to the international student affairs office at the host institution once a month.

If you have received two reservation notices (June and November), choose one notice to submit. If you have received the notice of “Students with excellent result by EJU Overseas Exam,” use that

An applicant must take all the procedures when you enter your host institution, otherwise you will lose your reservation.
